A student at The International Language School

Ahmed is an intelligent student at the International Language School. He is a tall and strong boy from Egypt and his first language is Arabic. He can speak English fluently, but his writing is rather bad. He is a basketball player and he wants to be a member of the school basket ball team. He is studying maths and physics. He wants to be a physician later because he hopes to make new discoveries. Ahmed is a very nice and sociable person; he has a lot of friends. As a child he dreamt to be a pilot but his dream vanished with time because he has a bad eyesight and must wear glasses.
